FOUNDER'S CORNER

A Thanksgiving Message to Our Team

Dear Team,

We are in the middle of the Thanksgiving holiday and celebrated the traditional dinner with friends and family on Thursday, a United States tradition. I want to share what this occasion means and why its values resonate deeply with the work culture we strive to build together across all our locations, including India.

Thanksgiving, at its core, is a day dedicated to gratitude.

Over 100s of years, Thanksgiving has evolved into a day when families and friends come together to express appreciation for the people, opportunities, and experiences that enrich their lives. It is less about tradition or ritual and more about reflecting on what we are thankful for.

Although it is an American holiday, the values behind Thanksgiving, gratitude, togetherness, humility, and appreciation, are universal. These are values that transcend geography, culture, and profession.

They also mirror the foundation of a healthy and thriving work culture:

- Gratitude reminds us to pause and recognize the contributions of those around us.
- Togetherness highlights the importance of collaboration and supporting one another as one team.
- Humility encourages us to keep learning, stay grounded, and appreciate both successes and challenges.

Every day, I see these values reflected in how you work—with dedication, creativity, and a deep commitment to excellence. Our progress as a company is built on your talent and the way you show up for each other and for our customers.

As we observe Thanksgiving here in the U.S., I want to extend that spirit of appreciation to all of you in India as well. Thank you for your hard work, your problem-solving mindset, and the pride you take in delivering quality. Your contributions are essential to everything we achieve together.

Even if Thanksgiving is not celebrated in India, the message behind it is one we all share: recognizing the people who make a difference in our lives and work.

Wishing you and your families peace, gratitude, and a wonderful week ahead.
